Fear Less, Love More: What to Do When the Unexpected ...

About The Orange Rhino® In January 2012, my handyman busted me yelling at my four boys, then ages five and under. Embarrassed I had been caught, disappointed I had become a yelling mom, ashamed because I felt I was the only one of my friends with a “yelling problem,” and most importantly saddened that I had yet again, yelled at boys, I decided enough was enough.

Call me lazy, but I just love the fact that I can download a new book to my Kindle in less than a minute without having to even get up, without having to go to the store or wait for shipping. Granted, that much convenience can be a little dangerous (another reason to pick free books as often as possible) but for me the easiness factor far outweighs any detriments.
